

Welcome to Wharton West

Wharton West is the San Francisco campus of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. Established in 1881 as the first school of management in the world, the Wharton School is renowned for academic strengths across every major discipline and level of business education.

West Coast executives can now access Wharton's unparalleled thought leadership and faculty research found on the East Coast. The Wharton West MBA Program for Executives provides regional business leaders the opportunity to earn a full Wharton MBA without having to sacrifice their careers.

Serving the larger business community with conferences, open-enrollment and executive education classes, Wharton West also provides a wide range of programs which can be customized to the needs of individual companies and organizations.

Wharton's vital presence on the West Coast continues to grow and deepen. Nearly 9,000 Wharton alumni live and work in the region, connected by a powerful alumni network and eight thriving alumni clubs.

The Wharton West Campus

Located since 2001 at the historic Folger Building in San Francisco's financial district, Wharton West is a state-of-the-art educational center designed to support Wharton's innovative teaching and learning methods.

Bringing Immediate Value to Executives and Corporations

The Wharton MBA Program for Executives

Wharton's two-year, weekend residential MBA Program for Executives in San Francisco offers the same MBA degree, rigorous curriculum, top Wharton faculty and high level of students as our traditional MBA program on Wharton's main campus in Philadelphia.

Some locally sponsored students or graduates include: Amgen, Cisco, J.P. Morgan Chase, Gap, Boeing and The Walt Disney Company.

Wharton Executive Education Programs

Wharton's outstanding faculty has more executive education expertise in more areas than at any other business school. From wide-ranging research centers to insights and analysis of global business trends, Wharton's classes give executives practical, cutting-edge approaches to business challenges which achieve real results—today, and for a lifetime.

Open-Enrollment (Individual) Programs

Varying in length from three days to several weeks, these programs address critical business issues, with practical knowledge and broader insights into such areas as strategy, marketing, leadership and management, and finance and accounting.

Custom Programs

One of the world's largest providers of customized programs, Wharton can deliver sessions on campus or at another site covering topics such as:

- Developing next-generation leaders
- Capturing innovative ideas and launching new products with competitive advantage.
